

The Store That Sells Wooltex

Smoot & Jelleff

1216 F Street N.W.

Open All Day Saturday—8:30 to 5:15.

Big Bargains Friday

Tomorrow we close out the remaining groups of summer merchandise at next to nothing prices.

To-morrow we place on sale many lines of the stunning new autumn apparel and finery at special introductory prices.

Tomorrow will be a big day at this busy store—big in bargain opportunities—a chance to make the greatest savings of this year.

SUMMER DRESSES—FINAL REDUCTIONS

Dresses at 69c, Regularly $5.00

Dresses at $1.50, Regularly $6.75 to $8.50

Flowered and striped voiles.

Dresses at $2.50, Regularly $8.50 to $10.00

Voile, linen and marquisette; colors and all white.

Dresses at $3.50, Regularly $12.50 to $15.00

Imported voile, crepe marquisette, handkerchief linen; colors and white.

Dresses at $6.50, Regularly $15.00 and $20.00

Imported white organdie, voile and net.

Dresses at $8.75, Regularly $22.50 and $25.00

Fine embroidered organdie, braided net, lace-trimmed voile.

SILK DRESSES

At $10, Regularly $25 and $30

Black and white Jap silk, tan and black taffeta, gray and rose crepe de chine, natural color pongee.

A FEW AFTERNOON GOWNS

At $16.75, Regularly $45 to $69

Striped silk marquisette in blue and black; plaid and striped taffeta, blue and black; fall silk in Copenhagen blue.

Dresses at $6.50, Regularly $16.50

White Jap and taffeta silk.

Silk Coats

At $4.75, Regularly $13.50 and $15.00

Corduroy and Kayser Silk Coats, gold, green and white.

Cotton Coats

At $1.25, Regularly $2.95—Natural Color Linen. Full-length Coats.

Lingerie Blouses

At $1.45, Regularly $2.50 to $3.50

Blouse in fine voile, organdie and marquisette lace and hand-embroidered trimmings.

Blouses

At $2.50, Regularly $5.00 to $10.00

Blouses in imported mull, organdie, batiste and Georgette crepe; hand-embroidered, Venice and Valenciennes lace trimmings.

Odd Blouses

At 69c, Regularly $2.50 and $3.00

Blouses in lace-trimmed organdie, striped Jap silk, striped handkerchief linen.

Pre-Shrunk Wash Skirts

At $1.25, Regularly $4.00—Skirts in pique and poplin.

At $1.95, Regularly $5.00 to $7.50

Skirts in linen, French cord, gabardine and honeycomb check.

Corduroy Skirts

At $2.45, Regularly $5.00 and $5.90

White corduroy.

Palm Beach Cloth Skirts

At $1.00, Regularly $3.05 and $5.00

Skirts.

CLOTH SUITS

At $10.00, Regularly $30.00

Navy serge.

A Magnificent Line of Women's New Fall Suits at $25

One of the smartest styles you will see this fall—strictly tailor-made, in fine quality broadcloth. All the new shades: African brown, black-berry, field mouse, navy and black. These are without question the most elegant and refined suit models ever offered at $25 in this city.

Misses' School Suits and Dresses Specially Priced

Special at $17.50

Misses' Smart Norfolk and Box Coat Suit in cheviot and gabardine; braided velvet trimmings.

Special at $15.50

Misses' Peter Thompson Suit in navy and black serge; very chic, with its novel yoke pockets and braided trimmings.

For Autumn! Chic New Vestees and Fichus

At 50c each—A tulle of Net and Lace, white and cream, trimmed with dainty patterns of lace.

Fall Importation Centerpiece Gloves

Just received our fall importation of Centerpiece gloves, comprising all the latest styles and colors of fashion's decree.

For Autumn! Chic New Vestees and Fichus

At 50c each—A tulle of Net and Lace, white and cream, trimmed with dainty patterns of lace.

Fall Importation Centerpiece Gloves

Just received our fall importation of Centerpiece gloves, comprising all the latest styles and colors of fashion's decree.

For Autumn! Chic New Vestees and Fichus

At 50c each—A tulle of Net and Lace, white and cream, trimmed with dainty patterns of lace.

Fall Importation Centerpiece Gloves

Just received our fall importation of Centerpiece gloves, comprising all the latest styles and colors of fashion's decree.

For Autumn! Chic New Vestees and Fichus

At 50c each—A tulle of Net and Lace, white and cream, trimmed with dainty patterns of lace.

Fall Importation Centerpiece Gloves

Just received our fall importation of Centerpiece gloves, comprising all the latest styles and colors of fashion's decree.

For Autumn! Chic New Vestees and Fichus

At 50c each—A tulle of Net and Lace, white and cream, trimmed with dainty patterns of lace.

Fall Importation Centerpiece Gloves

Just received our fall importation of Centerpiece gloves, comprising all the latest styles and colors of fashion's decree.

For Autumn! Chic New Vestees and Fichus

At 50c each—A tulle of Net and Lace, white and cream, trimmed with dainty patterns of lace.

Fall Importation Centerpiece Gloves

Just received our fall importation of Centerpiece gloves, comprising all the latest styles and colors of fashion's decree.

For Autumn! Chic New Vestees and Fichus

At 50c each—A tulle of Net and Lace, white and cream, trimmed with dainty patterns of lace.

Fall Importation Centerpiece Gloves

Just received our fall importation of Centerpiece gloves, comprising all the latest styles and colors of fashion's decree.

For Autumn! Chic New Vestees and Fichus

At 50c each—A tulle of Net and Lace, white and cream, trimmed with dainty patterns of lace.

Fall Importation Centerpiece Gloves

Just received our fall importation of Centerpiece gloves, comprising all the latest styles and colors of fashion's decree.

For Autumn! Chic New Vestees and Fichus

At 50c each—A tulle of Net and Lace, white and cream, trimmed with dainty patterns of lace.

Fall Importation Centerpiece Gloves

Just received our fall importation of Centerpiece gloves, comprising all the latest styles and colors of fashion's decree.

For Autumn! Chic New Vestees and Fichus

At 50c each—A tulle of Net and Lace, white and cream, trimmed with dainty patterns of lace.

Fall Importation Centerpiece Gloves

Just received our fall importation of Centerpiece gloves, comprising all the latest styles and colors of fashion's decree.

For Autumn! Chic New Vestees and Fichus

At 50c each—A tulle of Net and Lace, white and cream, trimmed with dainty patterns of lace.

Fall Importation Centerpiece Gloves

Just received our fall importation of Centerpiece gloves, comprising all the latest styles and colors of fashion's decree.

For Autumn! Chic New Vestees and Fichus

At 50c each—A tulle of Net and Lace, white and cream, trimmed with dainty patterns of lace.

Fall Importation Centerpiece Gloves

Just received our fall importation of Centerpiece gloves, comprising all the latest styles and colors of fashion's decree.

For Autumn! Chic New Vestees and Fichus

At 50c each—A tulle of Net and Lace, white and cream, trimmed with dainty patterns of lace.

Fall Importation Centerpiece Gloves

Just received our fall importation of Centerpiece gloves, comprising all the latest styles and colors of fashion's decree.

For Autumn! Chic New Vestees and Fichus

At 50c each—A tulle of Net and Lace, white and cream, trimmed with dainty patterns of lace.

Fall Importation Centerpiece Gloves

Just received our fall importation of Centerpiece gloves, comprising all the latest styles and colors of fashion's decree.

EVENTS OF INTEREST

IN AND OUT OF TOWN

Comings and Goings of Relatives of the President.

Pleasant Occasions Here and Elsewhere—Beautiful Weddings.

Notes.

Mrs. Joseph R. Wilson and daughter, Miss Alice Wilson, sister-in-law and niece of President Wilson, who have been spending several weeks at Virginia Beach, will return to Baltimore September 15, and probably will go to Westminster, Md., for a short time before leaving for the south in October, where they expect to remain for some time. Mr. and Mrs. Wilson will return to their apartment in Baltimore in November, Miss Wilson remaining in Tennessee for several months.

Yesterday being the birthday anniversary of Mrs. Annie Wilson Howe, the President's sister, she and a party of relatives celebrated it by a theater party. Mrs. Howe is now in New York city, having completed her visit to Cornish, N. H., at Harlakenden house, with Miss Margaret Wilson.

A beautiful wedding took place in the Warner Memorial Presbyterian Church of Kensington, Md., Wednesday evening, when Miss Mary Agnes Chapin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Byron A. Chapin, became the bride of Louis Hamilton Willard of this city. The church was elaborately decorated with hydrangeas, clematis and potted plants, arranged by three friends of the bride, Misses Sarah R. Kline, Carrie Webster and Mrs. Lewis T. Boynton. The reserved pews were marked with large clusters of hydrangeas and clematis. A musical program was rendered during the seating of the guests by Miss Alice Terrell, who presided at the organ, and Harry Bigley, who sang Burleigh's "O Perfect Love." The matron of honor was Mrs. George Burton Buck of New York city. She was dressed in pink accented-pleated chiffon under pink silk net trimmed with silver braid. The bridesmaids were Misses Helena Webster, Phyllis Herrmann of Kensington, Eleanor Willard, sister of the groom, and Inez Lewis of Washington. They were dressed in pink georgette crepe over tulle, trimmed with lace, and carried maidenhair ferns tied with pink tulle. Entering from the Sunday school room, the bridesmaids met the bride at the main door of the church and escorted her to the altar. The bride was dressed in a handsome gown of white silk net, trimmed with black velvet, and carried a bouquet of roses and lilies. The groom was dressed in a tuxedo and carried a boutonniere of lilies. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Dr. Henry Rumer of Darlington, Md., formerly of Kensington, assisted by the Rev. Mr. Ralph of Grace Reformed Church, Washington.

Mrs. Byron A. Chapin, mother of the bride, wore a handsome gown of amethyst crepe meteor. Mrs. T. E. Willard, mother of the groom, wore gray crepe de chine.

A reception followed immediately at the home of the bride's parents, on Connecticut avenue, where the bride and the parents of the newly wedded couple were in the receiving line. A buffet supper was served. Mrs. A. H. Kline presided in the dining room. She was assisted by Mrs. Zimmerman, Mrs. Carroll and Miss Van Hook and Chamberlain of Washington and Misses Mary Hyatt, Jane Herrmann, Alma Keever and Virginia Willard of Kensington. Miss Ellen Chapin presided at the punch bowl.

The attendants of the bride and groom were presented with dainty gold friendship pins.

Mr. and Mrs. Willard left on a late train for an extended trip to the north. Mrs. Willard's traveling dress was navy blue gabardine trimmed with black velvet.

Just before her departure the bride, according to custom, threw her bouquet, which was caught by Miss Alma McKee.

Upon their return the couple will be at home on Newton street northwest, Washington.

Dr. and Mrs. Charles A. Schlaer and Miss Annie T. Gordon of 320 Westminister street northwest have returned from Jordan White Sulphur Springs.

Mrs. Margaret M. Carby and Miss Georgia Cromwell, both of Frederick, Md., are visiting Mrs. Carby's son, Alton B. Carby, on their return trip from Boston, Mass. They visited Mrs. Daisy Conklin while in Boston.

Miss Mabelle Goldenstroth has gone to New York for an indefinite stay to continue her musical study.

Dr. and Mrs. George B. Welch have returned to their home on an extensive western trip on the coast.

The marriage of Mrs. Jane Boyd Joyce and Mr. Charles Arthur Fiske, both of this city, took place last evening at 6 o'clock at the residence of Mrs. Joyce's sisters at Sandy Spring, Md. Rev. Mr. Marsden of Olney Church, Md., performed the ceremony and members of the family only were present.

Mr. and Mrs. Fiske have taken a house at Chevy Chase, D. C., for the winter.

Representative and Mrs. H. D. Flood of Virginia have arrived in this city and are staying at the Shoreham.

Mr. A. Katz will be at home from 7 until 10 o'clock Sunday, 223 South Pitt street, where his family will hold the confirmation of his son, Adrian Katz.

Mrs. Mary Ellen Fealy, accompanied by her granddaughter, Miss Mae Fitzgerald, has gone to Bluemont, Va., for two weeks.

Mrs. Alexander Britton has joined Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Chisolm at the Wolcott Hotel in New York city.

Mrs. Henry Baker of 1300 Q street northwest and her niece, Mrs. Julia L. Swartz of Brooklyn, N. Y., have just returned to Washington, after an extended trip in the west, visiting both the Panama-Pacific exposition in San Francisco and the Panama-California exposition in San Diego.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Lown have gone to Troy, N. Y., where they will visit relatives for several weeks.

Dr. and Mrs. W. P. Malone have returned to the city.

Prof. Paul H. Dike, Ph. D., formerly of the Carnegie Institution of Washington, has been in the city since Sunday, attending to the securing of passports and other business. He is en route, with his family, to Constantinople, where he has accepted the position of professor of geology.

Mrs. Joseph R. Wilson and daughter, Miss Alice Wilson, sister-in-law and niece of President Wilson, who have been spending several weeks at Virginia Beach, will return to Baltimore September 15, and probably will go to Westminster, Md., for a short time before leaving for the south in October, where they expect to remain for some time. Mr. and Mrs. Wilson will return to their apartment in Baltimore in November, Miss Wilson remaining in Tennessee for several months.

Yesterday being the birthday anniversary of Mrs. Annie Wilson Howe, the President's sister, she and a party of relatives celebrated it by a theater party. Mrs. Howe is now in New York city, having completed her visit to Cornish, N. H., at Harlakenden house, with Miss Margaret Wilson.

A beautiful wedding took place in the Warner Memorial Presbyterian Church of Kensington, Md., Wednesday evening, when Miss Mary Agnes Chapin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Byron A. Chapin, became the bride of Louis Hamilton Willard of this city. The church was elaborately decorated with hydrangeas, clematis and potted plants, arranged by three friends of the bride, Misses Sarah R. Kline, Carrie Webster and Mrs. Lewis T. Boynton. The reserved pews were marked with large clusters of hydrangeas and clematis. A musical program was rendered during the seating of the guests by Miss Alice Terrell, who presided at the organ, and Harry Bigley, who sang Burleigh's "O Perfect Love." The matron of honor was Mrs. George Burton Buck of New York city. She was dressed in pink accented-pleated chiffon under pink silk net trimmed with silver braid. The bridesmaids were Misses Helena Webster, Phyllis Herrmann of Kensington, Eleanor Willard, sister of the groom, and Inez Lewis of Washington. They were dressed in pink georgette crepe over tulle, trimmed with lace, and carried maidenhair ferns tied with pink tulle. Entering from the Sunday school room, the bridesmaids met the bride at the main door of the church and escorted her to the altar. The bride was dressed in a handsome gown of white silk net, trimmed with black velvet, and carried a bouquet of roses and lilies. The groom was dressed in a tuxedo and carried a boutonniere of lilies. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Dr. Henry Rumer of Darlington, Md., formerly of Kensington, assisted by the Rev. Mr. Ralph of Grace Reformed Church, Washington.

Mrs. Byron A. Chapin, mother of the bride, wore a handsome gown of amethyst crepe meteor. Mrs. T. E. Willard, mother of the groom, wore gray crepe de chine.

A reception followed immediately at the home of the bride's parents, on Connecticut avenue, where the bride and the parents of the newly wedded couple were in the receiving line. A buffet supper was served. Mrs. A. H. Kline presided in the dining room. She was assisted by Mrs. Zimmerman, Mrs. Carroll and Miss Van Hook and Chamberlain of Washington and Misses Mary Hyatt, Jane Herrmann, Alma Keever and Virginia Willard of Kensington. Miss Ellen Chapin presided at the punch bowl.

The attendants of the bride and groom were presented with dainty gold friendship pins.

Mr. and Mrs. Willard left on a late train for an extended trip to the north. Mrs. Willard's traveling dress was navy blue gabardine trimmed with black velvet.

Just before her departure the bride, according to custom, threw her bouquet, which was caught by Miss Alma McKee.

Upon their return the couple will be at home on Newton street northwest, Washington.

Dr. and Mrs. Charles A. Schlaer and Miss Annie T. Gordon of 320 Westminister street northwest have returned from Jordan White Sulphur Springs.

Mrs. Margaret M. Carby and Miss Georgia Cromwell, both of Frederick, Md., are visiting Mrs. Carby's son, Alton B. Carby, on their return trip from Boston, Mass. They visited Mrs. Daisy Conklin while in Boston.

Miss Mabelle Goldenstroth has gone to New York for an indefinite stay to continue her musical study.

Dr. and Mrs. George B. Welch have returned to their home on an extensive western trip on the coast.

The marriage of Mrs. Jane Boyd Joyce and Mr. Charles Arthur Fiske, both of this city, took place last evening at 6 o'clock at the residence of Mrs. Joyce's sisters at Sandy Spring, Md. Rev. Mr. Marsden of Olney Church, Md., performed the ceremony and members of the family only were present.

Mr. and Mrs. Fiske have taken a house at Chevy Chase, D. C., for the winter.

Representative and Mrs. H. D. Flood of Virginia have arrived in this city and are staying at the Shoreham.

Mr. A. Katz will be at home from 7 until 10 o'clock Sunday, 223 South Pitt street, where his family will hold the confirmation of his son, Adrian Katz.

Mrs. Mary Ellen Fealy, accompanied by her granddaughter, Miss Mae Fitzgerald, has gone to Bluemont, Va., for two weeks.

Mrs. Alexander Britton has joined Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Chisolm at the Wolcott Hotel in New York city.

Mrs. Henry Baker of 1300 Q street northwest and her niece, Mrs. Julia L. Swartz of Brooklyn, N. Y., have just returned to Washington, after an extended trip in the west, visiting both the Panama-Pacific exposition in San Francisco and the Panama-California exposition in San Diego.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Lown have gone to Troy, N. Y., where they will visit relatives for several weeks.

Dr. and Mrs. W. P. Malone have returned to the city.

Prof. Paul H. Dike, Ph. D., formerly of the Carnegie Institution of Washington, has been in the city since Sunday, attending to the securing of passports and other business. He is en route, with his family, to Constantinople, where he has accepted the position of professor of geology.

Mrs. Joseph R. Wilson and daughter, Miss Alice Wilson, sister-in-law and niece of President Wilson, who have been spending several weeks at Virginia Beach, will return to Baltimore September 15, and probably will go to Westminster, Md., for a short time before leaving for the south in October, where they expect to remain for some time. Mr. and Mrs. Wilson will return to their apartment in Baltimore in November, Miss Wilson remaining in Tennessee for several months.

Yesterday being the birthday anniversary of Mrs. Annie Wilson Howe, the President's sister, she and a party of relatives celebrated it by a theater party. Mrs. Howe is now in New York city, having completed her visit to Cornish, N. H., at Harlakenden house, with Miss Margaret Wilson.

A beautiful wedding took place in the Warner Memorial Presbyterian Church of Kensington, Md., Wednesday evening, when Miss Mary Agnes Chapin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Byron A. Chapin, became the bride of Louis Hamilton Willard of this city. The church was elaborately decorated with hydrangeas, clematis and potted plants, arranged by three friends of the bride, Misses Sarah R. Kline, Carrie Webster and Mrs. Lewis T. Boynton. The reserved pews were marked with large clusters of hydrangeas and clematis. A musical program was rendered during the seating of the guests by Miss Alice Terrell, who presided at the organ, and Harry Bigley, who sang Burleigh's "O Perfect Love." The matron of honor was Mrs. George Burton Buck of New York city. She was dressed in pink accented-pleated chiffon under pink silk net trimmed with silver braid. The bridesmaids were Misses Helena Webster, Phyllis Herrmann of Kensington, Eleanor Willard, sister of the groom, and Inez Lewis of Washington. They were dressed in pink georgette crepe over tulle, trimmed with lace, and carried maidenhair ferns tied with pink tulle. Entering from the Sunday school room, the bridesmaids met the bride at the main door of the church and escorted her to the altar. The bride was dressed in a handsome gown of white silk net, trimmed with black velvet, and carried a bouquet of roses and lilies. The groom was dressed in a tuxedo and carried a boutonniere of lilies. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Dr. Henry Rumer of Darlington, Md., formerly of Kensington, assisted by the Rev. Mr. Ralph of Grace Reformed Church, Washington.

Mrs. Byron A. Chapin, mother of the bride, wore a handsome gown of amethyst crepe meteor. Mrs. T. E. Willard, mother of the groom, wore gray crepe de chine.

A reception followed immediately at the home of the bride's parents, on Connecticut avenue, where the bride and the parents of the newly wedded couple were in the receiving line. A buffet supper was served. Mrs. A. H. Kline presided in the dining room. She was assisted by Mrs. Zimmerman, Mrs. Carroll and Miss Van Hook and Chamberlain of Washington and Misses Mary Hyatt, Jane Herrmann, Alma Keever and Virginia Willard of Kensington. Miss Ellen Chapin presided at the punch bowl.

The attendants of the bride and groom were presented with dainty gold friendship pins.

Mr. and Mrs. Willard left on a late train for an extended trip to the north. Mrs. Willard's traveling dress was navy blue gabardine trimmed with black velvet.

Just before her departure the bride, according to custom, threw her bouquet, which was caught by Miss Alma McKee.

Upon their return the couple will be at home on Newton street northwest, Washington.

POPULAR RESIDENT HOSTESS

MRS. E. W. REISINGER
Of 16th street, whose hospitality each season are frequent.

fessorship of physics in Robert College. They sail from New York probably on the 15th of this month on the Greek liner Athena. Mrs. Dike and the two sons will remain either in Spain or in Greece until conditions in Constantinople have become safe once more.

Mrs. Lulu Wood Francis and Miss Grace Francis have returned to their home at 1725 Euclid street, after a visit to Atlantic City.

Mr. Frank B. Martin, accompanied by his wife and daughter, Mrs. J. C. Elmore Martin of Charleston, S. C., has been a guest of the Hotel Sterling the past week.

Among numerous Washingtonians recently at Atlantic City are Mr. and Mrs. Odell Smith, Mr. Benjamin V. Darrell and his niece, Miss Magruder.

Mrs. Robert W. Williams of Richmond has recently leased a residence here, and will spend the winter in Washington. She will introduce an attractive debutante in Miss Lena Williams.

The marriage of Miss Margaret Booth and Mr. Donald Butler Jameson took place yesterday at the summer home of Miss Booth's parents, Judge and Mrs. Fenton W. Booth, in Marshall, Ill. The drawing room, where the ceremony took place, was decorated in smilax and pink and white asters. A large white canopy covered with white tulle, under which the bride and groom stood, was placed between the windows at the end of the room. The bride's only attendants were her schoolgirl sisters, Misses Virginia Marion and Louise Booth, and her cousin, Miss Gertrude Cole. Miss Louise Booth and Miss Gertrude Cole carried the ribbons which formed the aisle down which the bride party passed. They wore dainty frocks of white lawn and carried baskets of pink and white asters. Miss Marion Booth and Miss Virginia Booth were ruffled white tulle frocks with touches of pink and blue and carried pink and white asters. The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white tulle and lace, made short, and a tulle veil, held in place by a wreath of real orange blossoms. She carried a bouquet of white roses and lilies of the valley.

After the wedding supper Mr. and Mrs. Jameson left for their wedding journey, and will be at home, after October 15, in Indianapolis, Ind.

The guests at the wedding included only the relatives of Miss Booth and Mr. Jameson and a few of their most intimate friends. Among the out-of-town guests for the wedding were Mr. William H. Van Kleeck and Mrs. Chester Van Kleeck of New York city, Mr. John Harlan of Florida, Mr. and Mrs. John M. Judah, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Schmidt, Mr. and Mrs. Orville Peckham, Miss Alice Matthews and Mr. and Mrs. John Brandon of Indianapolis.

Mrs. Alfred Bennett-Iles, who has been at Atlantic City, has returned to Washington, and is now in the city going to Alaska in order to spend some time with her husband,